

TECHNICAL DATA

HEATSCOPE® SMARTBOX control unit

HEATSCOPE®
Infrared control

somfy®
I/O control

|                                                     |                                                              |                                                               |
|-----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|
| Voltage                                      | 220-240 VAC - 50/60 Hz                                       |                                                               |
| Amperage                                     | per heating step max. 16 A contact rating ohmic load         |                                                               |
| Measurements (WxDxH)                         | 100 x 170 x 35.5 mm                                          |                                                               |
| Weight                                       | 0.35 kg excl. mounting panel0.51 kg incl. mounting panel |                                                               |
| Control steps                                | ON   OFF100% + 50%                                       |                                                               |
| Protection class                             | IP 65                                                        |                                                               |
| CE standard                                  | yes                                                          |                                                               |
| Included accessories                         | Mounting panelfor wall and ceiling mounting              |                                                               |
| Remote control included in scope of delivery | yesHEATSCOPE® IR remote control                          | noorder I/O remot control via somfy®specialized trade |
| Automatic shut down                          | yes (deactivatable)after 4, 6 or 8 hours                 | no                                                            |

